

MARICOPA COMMUNITY COLLEGES TRANSFER PATHWAY

PERSONAL & FAMILY FINANCIAL PLANNING B.S.

In the Personal and Family Financial Planning program teaching, research, service, and innovation join together to promote financial success for the individual, the family, and the community. Students take a broad selection of personal and family financial planning courses, examining all facets of social, economic, and financial issues and relevance.

TRANSFER EQUIVALENCIES

On the following page you will find course equivalencies for Personal and Family Financial Planning. The information presented is a recommended outline of courses for students to take at Maricopa Community Colleges that will transfer as equivalent courses to the University of Arizona. Please consult with a transfer admissions counselor and academic advisor to review specific courses as transfer pathways are subject to change.

The course equivalencies on the following page are from the AZTransfer course equivalency guide. The student's successful completion of each course will be reviewed in the pre-admission evaluation. Please note that all course work will be officially evaluated once your official transcript is processed by the University of Arizona. Students must receive a grade of a C or higher for a course to transfer.

Students majoring in Personal and Family Financial Planning will take classes such as fundamentals of personal and family financial planning, risk management and insurance planning, and retirement savings and income planning to gain the knowledge required to take the CFP® exam.
